

What a wonderful world -- ESA

Diane Vanusek
PRESIDENT

September is almost over and fall is rapidly changing the color of our world from “trees of green” to “the colors of the rainbow” with the leaves blowing across the lawn and down the street. The leaves hurrying down the street are similar to the myriad of activities blowing across the calendar of Minnesota ESA.

Looking at the calendar, there is the Walk for Hope for Alexandra House, October 10, the IC Planning Meeting, October 12, the state membership meeting, October 17, the St. Jude Style Show/Silent Auction, November 7, the St. Jude Give Thanks Walk, November 21 and the State Christmas Party, December 7. I hope many of you “leaves” blow into these events!

Eight members will be representing Minnesota at the MARC Conference. The banquet entertainment will be provided by the state delegations. You will be happy to know we will be lip-synching our presentation of “Minnesotaville” so we will not be hooted out of the room. I have never been to the Dayton, Ohio area and will take time to see something unique to the area. Last year, I went to the Gerald Ford Presidential Library. It was much more interesting than I thought it would be. I am sure it will be a fun, interesting weekend.

Hopefully, chapters are planning a “Hope for Heroes” event something along the lines requested by IC President, Jamie Atchison. Jamie really would like to hear what your chapter is planning so let her know.

From Dora Dill - IC First VP/President Elect,
Nominating Committee Chair

“There are many talented members who would make fantastic IC Council officers. I encourage all qualified members to accept the challenge, continue to believe, experience ESA and help plan the future of our organization.” Nominations are due November 15, 2009, for most IC Offices. Contact her for candidate qualifications and more information.

I would like to welcome our new member from the Rush breakfast, Sandy Hongerholt. She was a guest of Betty Robinson, Gamma Omega. Please keep me informed of any other new members.

“No other group has given me the opportunities to succeed like ESA. Everywhere one turns, you are greeted with encouragement, warm smiles and a feeling that, no matter what you are trying to do, you can and will be triumphant.” - Jeanne, WI

Please remember that one way to a harmonious year in ESA is effective communication within and without our membership. Please strive to remember to use all forms of communication.

Keep in mind as the weather gets colder there are many people without appropriate clothes for the winter. Hats, mittens and scarves will be collected at upcoming state meeting. The school supplies received by my daughter, Lisa's, school from the August collection by Alpha Lambda were gratefully received. Many more students are now like the other kids. Our state meeting on October 17, 2009 at the Blaine Fire Station will include good company, good food and good information. See you there!

What a Wonderful World
ESA

First Vice President → Terri Olson

Yay!! We have another new member. Sandy Hongerholt came to the Rush Breakfast, went home and that evening signed up online. Betty Robinson invited Sandy to the breakfast and she is joining Gamma Omega chapter with her pledge ceremony scheduled for Wednesday, October 14th. Welcome Sandy, we hope you have a long and memorable experience! Are there any other new members out there that I don't know about yet? Please let me know because I would like to personally welcome them to our fabulous organization.

Have you thought about some of the new ways for forming a chapter? Don't forget that there are opportunities to meet any need - if there's a will, there's a way. Have you invited those MALs out there to come visit your chapter? Don't forget about them; they're listed in the back of your roster and could very possibly be looking for a chance to rejoin ESA.

Why not give them a call and invite someone to your next chapter event? Have you thought about inviting them to come and work with you for a few hours at Medtox? You'll earn some philanthropic hours and dollars and you'll have a good time with good friends doing something good for others.

Are you interested in growing ESA? Do you want to work as part of a team to help grow the organization? Do you have particular idea of what kind of a chapter you would like to see? (I heard recently about a possible workplace chapter that was in the works.) Would you like some help in working toward this endeavor? I'm a phone call or email away and I'd love to help.

In fact, I'd like to organize a team to help grow our state organization. Are you interested in helping me?

This month's focus for Energizing ESA will be all about how to organize teams to help grow MN ESA. We'll talk about different methods for growing our organization and we'll be developing teams that have a strong interest in making membership growth happen.

We'll be meeting Wednesday, October 20th between 6:00 and 6:30pm (come when you can) at the Ridgedale Library on the second floor next to Dunn Bros. coffee shop. Hope to see you there.

Junior Past President → Betty Robinson

Hello, fellow ESAers. I missed the last Essay article deadline, but not this time! Although this doesn't have a lot to do with the subject of IC Disaster Fund or MN Love Fund, I found this article very interesting. I haven't ever seen it before, maybe you have, but I wanted to share with you all. I will not be able to make the October 17th State Membership meeting, however I will make sure the "Jars" are there for your contributions (i.e. pin fines, etc). Remember to give from the heart whatever you can. Bless you all. Betty Robinson, Jr. Past President.

Written By Regina Brett, 90 years old, of The Plain Dealer, Cleveland, Ohio

"To celebrate growing older, I once wrote the 45 lessons life taught me.

It is the most-requested column I've ever written.

My odometer rolled over to 90 in August, so here is the column once more:

1. Life isn't fair, but it's still good.
2. When in doubt, just take the next small step.
3. Life is too short to waste time hating anyone.
4. Your job won't take care of you when you are sick. Your friends and parents will. Stay in touch.

5. Pay off your credit cards every month.
6. You don't have to win every argument. Agree to disagree.
7. Cry with someone. It's more healing than crying alone.
8. It's OK to get angry with God. He can take it.
9. Save for retirement starting with your first paycheck.
10. When it comes to chocolate, resistance is futile.
11. Make peace with your past so it won't screw up the present.
12. It's OK to let your children see you cry.

13. Don't compare your life to others. You have no idea what their journey is all about.

14. If a relationship has to be a secret, you shouldn't be in it.

15. Everything can change in the blink of an eye. But don't worry; God never blinks.

16. Take a deep breath. It calms the mind.

17. Get rid of anything that isn't useful, beautiful or joyful.

18. Whatever doesn't kill you really does make you stronger.

19. It's never too late to have a happy childhood. But the second one is up to you and no one else

20. When it comes to going after what you love in life, don't take no for an answer.

21. Burn the candles, use the nice sheets, wear the fancy lingerie. Don't save it for a special occasion. Today is special.

22. Over prepare, then go with the flow.

23. Be eccentric now. Don't wait for old age to wear purple.

24. The most important sex organ is the brain.

25. No one is in charge of your happiness but you.

26. Frame every so-called disaster with these words 'In five years, will this matter?'

27. Always choose life.

28. Forgive everyone everything.

29. What other people think of you is none of your business.

30. Time heals almost everything. Give time time.

31. However good or bad a situation is, it will change.

32. Don't take yourself so seriously. No one else does.

33. Believe in miracles.

34. God loves you because of who God is, not because of anything you did or didn't do.

35. Don't audit life. Show up and make the most of it now.

36. Growing old beats the alternative -- dying young.

37. Your children get only one childhood.

38. All that truly matters in the end is that you loved.

39. Get outside every day. Miracles are waiting everywhere.

40. If we all threw our problems in a pile and saw everyone else's, we'd grab ours back.

41. Envy is a waste of time. You already have all you need.

42. The best is yet to come...

43. No matter how you feel, get up, dress up and show up.

44. Yield.

45. Life isn't tied with a bow, but it's still a gift."

ESA Foundation - Karla Kay Nicklaus

"Serving the World Community ... Because We Care"

The 2010 scholarship application will be available soon. Will bring applications to the next board meeting or call me and will send you one.

Also, a reminder that dues are due are due - renewal - $15. Looking for new members and chapters to join the foundation (first year - $25) AND Life Active Members ($500). A reminder to use chapter treasurers to use the turn-around-fund...have forms for this too. Have a fun fall!

Association of the Arts - Nancy Johnson

I know it is early in the ESA calendar year but I would like to give you sisters all a pep talk about participating in the Association of the Arts this year. I know ESA gals are all very talented and I want all of you to consider starting a project that you can enter into the competition. You may already have something that you have done but just didn't think of entering it last year. It is so fun and rewarding to see your talents on show for all to see. So, get out those needles or paints or scissors etc. and go for it, I know you can do it.

Circle of Life - Judy Cummins

I finally did it. I have E-mail. I did what everyone said to do and I played with it for about two hours then finally has my neighbor help me. I would like to thank everyone who worked the Fall Festival of Hope. The St. Judes Style Show and Auction will Nov. 7th at Greenhaven in Anoka. If you have any special food or setting request please let us know when you send in reservation. See you Nov. 7th

State Convention - Shirley Laue

I am sorry I missed the Sept. Essay, But, I was busy attending the state fair--more than once. I picked up many things and many ideas. Plan to attend the 2010 Minnesota State Convention--'THE GREAT MINNESOTA GET TOGETHER'--April 30, May 1 and 2, at the Marriott Hotel in St. Louis Park-(Highways 169 and 394). Friday evening at the Mixer you will be 'mixing!' Sat. lunch will be the 'dress for the occasion'. It will be a rodeo theme, so start getting out those hats, boots and spurs! I don't want to give away all my secrets, so I will quit here with all my hints.

St. Jude Silent Auction → Birdie Elkofska

ESA does love to support St. Jude. And we love to go to all the functions where we raise funds. Our next Style Show and Auction is coming up November 7 at Greenhaven Golf Club in Anoka. Each year Alpha Sigma asks each of the ESA chapters for donations of new items of $15 to $25 value for this Auction. We get lots of wonderful items and put together many baskets for you to bid on. And isn't it fun to be the winner of those. Please consider donating again this year. Items can be brought to the State Board Meeting or Medtox or give any member of Alpha Sigma a phone call and we will pick items up.

Our first Auction raised only $600 and we had very few items. You have made this into a huge event and wonderful fund raiser for St. Jude Hospital. Last year we donated about $5000 from the event. AND ... we have fun and so many people win items.

Remember to bring your address labels to put on the ticket stubs and that will save you time from writing your name on each stub. More time to shop! Bring your friends and they will become regular attendees.

Treasurer's Article - Mary Parr

Time is getting short for paying state dues. I have received dues from many chapters but this is a reminder that you only have until November 1 to pay these dues if your chapter hasn't done so already. So cough up! (Just kidding, but please get them in!)

State Parliamentarian → Fran Voerding

At a General Membership meeting someone asked, "What are ByLaws and why do we have them?"

In Robert's Rules Newly Revised, there is a whole section on ByLaws. Here is a brief explanation taken from Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised In Brief. Page 85 and 86 number 3.

ByLaws or Constitution

In the majority of groups, the highest level of rules is contained in a document of the organization called the ByLaws.* Less commonly, organizations have a "constitution" instead of bylaws. The bylaws contain the group's own basic rules relating principally to itself as an organization.

They:

- describe the group's purpose;
- spell out the qualifications and method of selection of members;
- provide for officers, committees, and meetings (including the quorum); and
- may set up an executive board or board of directors.

Bylaws should include provisions for their own amendment that require previous notice of proposed amendments and at least a two-thirds vote for them to be adopted. Drafting and adopting bylaws is an essential step in forming a new organization. When adopting or amending bylaws, it is necessary to consult (RONR) 10th ed.), pages 548-80.

The activity of an organization must be conducted in compliance with its bylaws, and a main motion that violates them is not in order. [RONR(10th ed.) p. 12-14; p. 106,l. 20-22]

I hope this answers some questions about ByLaws.

Thanks to all who contributed school supplies. Two of us spent part of a morning separating the various types of supplies and boxing them up into six grocery boxes for distribution. Each box had approximately the same school items. Two of the boxes went directly to St. Paul schools, one box each to Sharon Desarmeaux, Diane Vanusek, and Fran Fredrickson for their/daughters schools. Fran said she was tired of buying a lot of these supplies out of her own pocket so they were much appreciated.

Kate Sala has started school in more ways than one. Becoming a student after xxx number of years is no small challenge. It's hard to get back into the routine of studying and writing papers again not to mention taking tests. You go girl! In the end it will be worth it with that teaching licensure in hand so she can get a REAL JOB. Her new house is coming along on schedule so we should have an update for the next newsletter and hopefully she will be moved in. Kathie Wasson is taking swimming lessons. The class is for the older set. Maybe we should call her "fish."

Mary Parr just got back from "up north" for fall color viewing - spent four days searching. Apparently the timing was off this year as the maples were just beginning to turn color in most places. She and her neighbor did drive the Gunflint Trail this year to the very end (60 miles). You could see where the fire burned so much of the landscape but Mother Nature has rejuvenated much of area with new trees and shrubs. The two of them had dinner at one of their usual places, the Trestle, which is built out of old railroad ties. The food is great every year and you can't beat the atmosphere.

We have placed a box at Medtox appropriately labeled for those of you who wish to support our coupon project. Just place any coupons there and we will pick them up for mailing. We will also have new pins for sale at the October membership meeting so bring your money.

Nothing new same old, same old, all is well, which is good. Right, Geri.

Jill says, "nothing new." But she is helping others (quilters) putting a quilt together for the "Quilts for Valor" Program. She said a quilt store donated, someone made the quilt and she will quilt it and add the binding. The finished quilt will be given to a soldier.

Rhonda had some gum surgery and had some trouble chewing food but it is healing very fast. When son James from Boston visited the family took a boat trip down the Mississippi. They stopped at the Mariner's Museum in Winona.

It is a museum that has everything related to rivers and oceans. This might be an interesting educational Delores Wiesner's grandson was married on Labor Day weekend. The ceremony was on the golf course in Wisconsin Dells with perfect weather, and an arbor was built for the outdoor ceremony. The reception was in the golf club house. She said there were family members visiting from many different parts of the country. It was a big family gathering and very enjoyable to have so many to help celebrate the event.

Fran, My life is also, B-O-R-I-N-G. But I was the the football game Sunday when Brett Favre (Vikings quarterback) took the team 80 yards down the field in 1:29 with no timeouts, and throwing the football for 32 yards to the end zone where Greg Lewis caught it for a touchdown. There were 2 seconds left on the clock.

WOW! My seats are at the south end of the field and the touchdown was at the North end. When the big screen flashed touchdown the sold out crowd exploded. I wouldn't be surprised if the dome raised up a bit from the noise. This was not boring. Sometimes exciting things happen when you least expect them to happen.

What is up this last month for Alpha Sigma? Well, Birdie says, "My life is pretty much work 10 hour days and then sneak in dentist work. So if one gets crowns does that make her a queen?" She had a Pampered Chef Show for St. Jude and had a great time and great profits. She does Medtox on Thursdays and enjoys that and wishes more would come also.

Sharon had a good time at the Minnesota State Fair.

she participated in the Rooster Crowing Contest and her rooster came in last place, (a real dud.) She also saw the High School Rodeo and admired the kids talent and energy.

Rose says she just works, works, works and she also has had root canal work. She managed to go out to Iowa last weekend while Jim and my husband Kerm were on their last fishing trip of the season.

I, Nancy, have had a great month, took a trip out to OshKosh WI, to babysit my Granddaughter Sienna while her mom and dad celebrated a wedding. We had a lot of fun taking walks and reading zillions of books.

I guess you all know what Diane has been up to this month so enough said about her. As for Alpha Sigma, soon we will be getting our act together to come up with a great auction for St Jude.

Gamma Omega

Carol Crepeau

Here's what we've been up to:

* Baking and getting auction items lined up for the Kickin' It With Nick fund raiser

* Cutting, sorting, totalling and mailing coupons to the troops overseas

* Working with the fun Tuesday afternoon/evening team at Medtox - (there's room for more volunteers on Tuesday nights)

* Attending the retirement celebration for Karla Kay Nicklaus on Sept. 27th - what a wonderful tribute her church family had for her. Congratulations on your retirement after 42 years at Bethany Lutheran Church, Karla Kay!

* Celebrating our granddaughter Katie's 10th birthday

That's it from us. Thanks and Hugs to you, Betty and Dennis

Went to Watertown SD with Terri Olson for work. Got a raise in salary at the Elks Lodge for my Assistant Gaming Manager work there. Moved into my new apt in Maple Grove, just 1 mile from work. It is great!

Sorry, nothing too exciting for me - just workin', helpin' Mom out, and life in general. Maybe I'll have something more exciting next month, but don't hold your breath.

Jodi -- Oops! I lied! I just remembered (although this is not earth shattering), last week I completed a week and a half of jury duty. Sent 3 grannies up the river (well, maybe not up the river), but we did find them guilty of trespassing at the recruitment center (armory) in St. Louis Park. To try to make a long story short, seems they went down there on the premise of asking for applications to enlist (actually they were there to protest the war). When refused applications because of army age requirements they chose not to leave even after police were called. So...the police tried explaining they would have to leave or be arrested for trespassing. The rest, as they say, is history. Don't know what the punishment was. After the judge read the verdict, we were dismissed back down to the jurors assembly room. Jodi Autumn is here, and we can definitely tell by the beautiful colors coming in the trees and hills around Mankato and New Ulm.

We have been unable to come up to Medtox to work in September, but maybe we can make it in October.

Florence is done with golf on Mondays and Gloria is home again from Branson and we can get things organized again.

Marie of course is always busy. Gloria did say that they have some good shows and enjoyed just getting away. When Florence came back from their trip to the north, they ate at Bar Harbor and had the walleye which was delicious. Marie also had a good time up north with her Easter Star sisters.

Our monthly meeting was held on September 1 at the Best Western in north Mankato. We decided to wait until the October meeting to make contributions to the different charities, money made from BENCO.

Florence, Gloria and I came up for the meeting at Karla's church and it was really a treat. Only, our group has to leave so early-we're really tired by night time.

By the way, thanks for getting the "Essay" out early. You are doing a great job.

Karla, congratulations on your retirement-a faithful employee they will miss!

Sharon - I volunteered at the Memory Walk for the Alzheimer's Association. It was a beautiful day for the walk. Our family trip to the Upper Peninsula was absolutely fantastic. I was Debbie Coolman's guest at the St Jude Fall Festival of Hope. We sat at the patient table. I was so excited when I heard that Lindsey Wilkerson would be at our table and was the guest speaker. I first met her when she was 9 years old at IC Convention when her and her mom came to speak about St Jude and her cancer. I also saw her again when she came to speak at our IC Convention working for ALSAC. Lindsey is married with a three year old daughter. When you see something like this you just know that everything that we do for St Jude is more than worth it. Larry and I will be going to Michigan next week for his 50th class reunion.

Debbie - Fall is here! Great to be back with my sisters and looking forward to our first Social, Rush and Ways & Means gathering. Should be fun. In the last month I was also able to attend the St. Jude Fall Festival of Hope and see all the dedicated ESA members volunteering. I feel very proud to be part of such a giving group. Each year I get to sit at the patient table and meet them. I was talking with one survivor, an 18 year girl named Hanna. As she was talking I realized I knew her and had meant her when I first moved to the twin cities back in 2002. I've thought of her many times over the years and wondered how she was doing. Well she is doing fantastic. All I could think as I looked around the table was how many lives ESA has helped to save and now I'm part of that.

Dana - The only thing that's going on with me (besides being super busy at work) is that Quinn and I are working hard on our halloween theme 10 year anniversary party.

Karen - We had a very successful social/rush/ways & means project!!! We had 5 visitors join us for our dime a dip and had lots of fun. The money we made was a nice perk!

We will have had the Kickin it with Nick benefit by the time you are reading this. We want to send a HUGE thank you to Cathy Campbell, Betty and Dennis Marler, Barb and Lori W and all our fellow ESA sisters/brothers who helped make it such a great success. The ESA family is a great place to be!!

Alpha Chi

Donna Wakefield

Our first meeting of the sorority year was very special for us because all of our fourteen members were present plus we had the honor of having Betty and Dennis Marler in attendance. It was great to start our year out on such a positive note!

We caught up on the activities of some of our members over the summer. Bev Landers spent most of her summer at their lake cabin but also had to come into town on several occasions because they are also doing some work on their home in the city. What a busy gal! Colleen Riley has been busy at her home at Boutwell's Landing in Stillwater. She is teaching crocheting to some six to nine-year old girls plus knitting to women. In her "spare time" she is also the Chief Bingo Caller for the residents.

Phyllis Frascone reported that she had some very good news about her son who lives in Texas. As reported in the Essay last September, he lost his entire vineyard plus his home in the hurricane. He attended a meeting this spring that was attended by all of the residents in the area and a very wonderful person by the name of Neil Diamond was in attendance and generously offered to help the people out who had lost everything. Jim was fortunate and is having a house built for him. What a special gift and greatly deserved.

We have few travelers in our group. Kathy Konrad was in Washington, D. C. this summer and is now in Wyoming and Colorado. She'll be back in time for our next meeting.

Sue and Ken Todd took a wonderful bus trip to Door County and reported the weather was perfect and they have a great time.

Nora Meyers reports that she will be going to Branson in October and Kathy Rice will be going there in November.

Shirley Hane can still be seen routinely walking at Maplewood and enjoying morning coffee there with her friends including Joan Capp who was a charter member of Alpha Chi.

On Tuesday, September 29th, a few of our members joined a few members of the Beta Theta Chapter at Keys Restaurant in Woodbury for lunch and had lots of chatter and laughs.

Gamma Zeta

Dorothy Wangen

Hello again from the Gamma Zeta Chapter. We had our first meeting September 8th, missing was Dianne Ocel and Dorothy Wangen.

Our meetings are now on Tuesday mornings. Mary Tolle's husband, Norval had surgery on his back in August and is doing some Physical Therapy and is doing better...Tough getting older.

We also heard that a former member of Gamma Zeta passed away, Pat Hawley. Also Mary Kules has her home on the market in New Mexico and is hoping to move to Carson City, NV to be close to her daughter, Sue.

Judy Cummins is working hard to get things together for the November 7th style show. Hope to see you all there.
